paid sex is allowed as an exception, as the community has voted to allow it.

Spoiler: Community poll

Discussion of personal romantic/sexual experiences outside of the forum may result in a warning or ban.

Spoiler: Community poll

- Do not LARP; there is a difference between withholding your experiences and pretending that they never happened.
- Behavior:
 - Do not persecute, harass, or attack others.
 - Do not humble-brag, such as by subtly praising your own features ("I'm incel even though I'm muscular and 6'2").
 - Do not troll, bait, proselytize, post platitudes, mass tag users, or necropost (i.e., do not post in inactive threads older than ~1 month unless you have something to contribute - plain agreement, mere quoting, and meaningless one-liners don't qualify as contributing).
- Accounts:
 - You can only have one account, do not make more. Do not share your account, or post on behalf of other users.
- Content:
 - Do not post low effort, spam, advertisement, or in all-caps.
 - Do not ask to be rated or post selfies.
 - Do not worship or praise people (i.e. do not put people on a pedestal or post pictures admiring them).
 - Do not cherrypick (e.g. posting an unattractive man with a girlfriend to generalize and try to prove a point).
 - Use the [NSFW] tag if your thread has shocking content, but use it sparingly.
 - Do not post illegal content. If in doubt, don't post it.
 - Do not post bluepill content of any kind.
 - Do not sexualize minors in any way, shape, or form.
 - No gay or LGBT content, unless you're criticising it.

These rules are very flexible. You WILL be warned or banned if you attempt to circumvent any of them.

Please also read our terms and rules and privacy policy for more information on data and content. By using this site you agree to all our policies and rules.

SUBFORUM-SPECIFIC RULES

- Must-Read Content:
 - Necroposting is allowed on all threads, they all remain relevant to this day

- The Lounge:

- Lax rules on low effort, just don't spam.

- The Sewers:

- Necropost anytime, spam all you want. However, do not mass tag people, mass create threads, or spam responses on many different threads (i.e. don't overly annoy people and ruin the experience for the rest).

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

I have an inquiry or proposal, where can I reach you?

Email master@incels.is

Why are the rules so unusual?

This is a forum for men who can't get a partner and feel sad about it. Seeing romantically successful people brag about their experiences on the forum would be insulting, and would only exacerbate the issue.

Is there a Dark theme?

Yes. Press the theme button on the bottom left of the page.

Can I change my username?

Not directly. The community voted and decided against it.

Spoiler: Poll

However, check the below section on account deletion/making new accounts.

Can I change the tag under my username?

Yes. From your preferences panel.

How do I get alerts?

At the top right of every thread, there's a button that says "Watch". If you want to Watch a particular thread without having to post, simply click the button

Can I block users?

Yes. Click on their username, followed by the button "Ignore".

Can I edit or delete my posts?

Yes. You have a 30-minute window to edit or delete posts. You have a 30-minute window to edit threads. You cannot delete threads.

You can ask a mod to remove content if you really need it gone, but we do not mass delete content.

I can't send private messages or vote in polls!

You're new. Be active on the site, and you'll be given permission automatically in time.

How do I add an image to my signature?

Upload the image to imgur.com. Click on the down arrow once it's uploaded -> Get share links and use the BBCode (forums) link.

How do ranks and stars work?

You earn one star per 100 posts, up to 5 stars. Once you get 500 posts your rank and color change, and you reset to one star again.

For each rank you need to have been registered one extra week on the site, this is so spamming to skip ranks isn't possible.

You can see all ranks in the Members section's sidebar. If you have the post count + registered time required for a rank, be patient; the 'upgrade' process runs every hour.

Can I erase my account?

Yes. Select the "Disable Account" option from your user dropdown or from your preferences.

This is irreversible! Your username will be randomized, your email and password purged from the database, and your account fully disabled forever.

I deleted my account. Can I make a new one?

Yes, but only three (3) months after the deletion of your old one. Just register again and link to your old account, so we can whitelist you. Don't pretend to be a new account because we'll confuse you for someone trying to avoid a ban. If you got banned and only then deleted the account, you don't qualify for this. You need to wait one (1) year instead. If you try to make an account before that, you will get banned and the 1-year timer will be reset. And yes, if you delete your account and then wait three months, you can get a new username by making a new account. Three months is a long time though, think about it carefully.

How can I stay safe online?

The same way you do anywhere else: Don't post personal information (name, address, phone, email, pictures, etc), unless you are comfortable

Warnings are active for exactly 1 month by default. Active warnings will add up, and if they total 60% or more you will get a temporary ban (up to 4 days). At 100%, you'll be permanently banned.

Why was X user banned?

We do not announce reasons for warnings or bans, but you can try asking the user yourself. Otherwise, use the ban megathread in Offtopic.

What is low effort?

It is content that is unrelated to a thread, posted for memetic value, or spam-like in nature. Examples: an emote reply, quoting someone and adding nothing else, one-word replies, and many other variations. The content might as well not have been posted.

Rule Guideline Update:

Based on the 6-0 vote in our mod chat, we have decided to add the following rules:

- Do not post bluepilled content of any kind.
- Do not sexualize minors in any way, shape, or form.

The first rule is pretty much implied, but we have made a rule for it anyways. The second rule is a new rule. We have had a very long discussion about the implementation of a rule that restricts speech, but we believe that this rule is necessary.

Minor rule change:

- Do not sexualize minors in any way, shape, or form.

The above rule has been changed to the following to better reflect what we were going for:

- Do not sexualize pre-pubescent minors in any way, shape, or form.

Rule explanations:

Blue pill content: Posting tired cliches and worn out normie and PUA grifter platitudes such as "Just be yourself bro", "Man up bro", "Just hit the gym and learn to lift bro", "Work hard, get a job and eventually a woman will come to you bro, etc, etc are all examples of blue pill thinking that don't belong here, as while some of this advice may have worked in the long ago past eras of the 1980's, 1970's, 1960's, 1950's and earlier, it is a vastly different and more unforgiving, fast moving highly connected but extremely alienated, high tech world now where competition for female mates has become so ferocious via the rise of the internet and dating apps that even attractive male Chads are at times having to turn to fat and or ugly women to get anything at all in regards to sex or relationships since the modern female would rather share any number of the top 10% best looking giga Chads on the planet with 50 other modern hypergamous females than simply settle for her looks match and be content with that.

LGBTQ content rule: We also consider furies ie furfags and bronzies to be part of this community and may update the rule further to include anymore disgusting and degenerate groups that might arise in the future within it if only for the understandable purposes of keeping our website free of degrading filth as well cultural subversion which these movements all heavily steeped in homosexuality almost always seem to foment.

Lastly on this issue for now in addition to criticizing LGBTQ we still of course allow our users to make fun of the condition as the inspiration images or videos and always be certain to use the NSFW tag on such content when you do so.

1. Example of legal gore content are car wrecks, accidents, natural disaster related, nature predator and prey related such as say Komodo dragons devouring a still alive and suffering deer or other type of animal, hunting videos etc, etc.

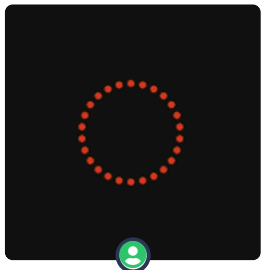

2. Example of illegal gore content are animal crush videos, animal abuse/cruelty videos, dog fights set up by human spectators etc, etc.

Illegal content: Everyone probably already knows enough about what sort of content is illegal so as not to post it so I will highlight some content specific to the community and what is legal from what is not.

1. Legal: Celebrating someone on the news having "gone ER" meaning gone on a mass shooting against our perceived or actual group enemies.

2. Illegal: Saying you will go ER against our actual or perceived enemies and or advocating or telling someone else to do so.

Rule Modification: When signing up on incels.is for the very first time or when being allowed to disable your prior username and create an alt username make sure to create a masculine sounding username which is to say, create the kind of username that when you yourself look at it or other's view it, that it gives off the vibe that a masculine heterosexual male created the name, otherwise your new account will be rejected effectively banning you from the website.

Examples of names that wouldn't be allowed because they evoke that a female or LGBTQ weirdo created them:

Also to the anime freaks out there:

Do not sign up here under your anime waifu's name either, as that would fall not only under this new rule of ours but the existing rule against foid worship as well.

Existing accounts of this type shall be grandfathered in, meaning left alone and unpunished, whereas from 2023 and onward the mods may reject new accounts such as these on sight.

Rule Modification:

Blue pill content part 2- The majority of the forum community as well the site staff ie moderators and admins have mutually agreed that the "Oofy Doofy" theory popularized if not entirely created by Youtube incelebrity "Hell by the dashboard light" is simply a repackaged version of the long detested and emasculating beta bux strategy, not to mention that "Oofy Doofy" theory is observably not truly reflective of the current year 2022 dating market, thus we at incels.is reject the theory as yet another unfortunately wildly popular self delusional blue pillied lie. Members who advocate for or who support this theory openly, shall be subject to similar level warnings and or bannings as are typically already applied to promoters of prior existing and identified blue pill content.

Rule explanation: What it means to be an incel on incels.is so that you may join our site.

Our community's unique definition of the term and word "incel" is not exactly the same as what you might find in the normie world or in a dictionary.

For us an incel is a male who has never had a romantic, voluntary, unpaid sexual relationship with a human female ever in his entire life and no romance whatsoever in his entire life with a human female, so this means to join up here and not be banned you must never of had a girlfriend or wife nor even a fling or one night stand, as that too can be based in a type of fleeting romantic love or passion.

The community has also repeatedly voted that so called "escortcels" ie men who have paid sex with prostitutes whether on a regular basis, once in a while or whenever the mood strikes may also be considered incels and join the community since our userbase as a majority agrees that ~~romantic pair bonding is what separates the normies and the Chads ie~~ voluntary sexual intercourse from her, that man has “ascended” meaning they have leveled up beyond incel status and now become a normie or a Chad.

Contrary to the public ie normies typical views on incels what we as a majority want is not sex first and foremost but rather to be chosen by a woman as her object of love and desire and only then be offered sex from her.

This is part of the reason why the community tolerates and even approves of “escortcels” ie men who have paid sex with prostitutes and it is because any man of legal age, financial means and physical ability can engage in this behavior but not every man out there can obtain something that is arguably more special and rewarding which is a woman’s love.

Name changes:

Beings as we are the two admins of the website @Master or myself can change your username for you if you so desire.

One or more of the mods we may have given this ability to perform also.

Though we reserve the right to refuse changing someone’s username for any reason ie maybe we’re too tired or lazy to do so at the moment or we’ve discovered you haven’t been a good boy dat dindu nuffin and have been too busy robbing the local liquor stores and snatching old ladies purses to spend any time at all on earning your skola-shiip.

However we are not likely to change your username if someone with an active account already has the cool username that you want and yet if someone signed up here presumably just to register a cool name and ~~never use it so as to keep other people from having it we will edit their~~
